The Foundation of the Wall and Ceiling Industry is proud of its three scholarship winners for 2000-2001. These outstanding young men were selected to receive $2,000 over two years to use toward their a post-high school education in construction management, engineering or architecture.

Jerry Bernar is a freshman at Purdue University where he is studying engineering. Jerry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bernar of Crete, Ill. During the summer, Jerry works with his father, who is employed by McNulty Brothers of Chicago. While at Marian Catholic High School, Jerry was in the National Honor Society and the student council. He enjoys golf, water sports and snowmobiling.

Christian Kehoe is a junior at UCLA where he is studying engineering. Christian is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kehoe of Rancho Murieta, Calif. Martin is employed by John Wagner Associates/Grabber in Concord, Calif. When at Elk Grove High School, Christian qualified to be in the Academic Top 10 of his class and was selected as the Outstanding Scholar Athlete. Like Bernar, Christian also enjoys soccer and golf.

Jason Salisbury is junior at Northern Illinois University where he is studying engineering. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Salisbury of Rockford, Ill.
Scholarships to
AND-COMERS

Steve is employed by Mid-States Construction of Rockford, Ill. When he was at Christian Life High School, he was captain of the golf and basketball teams.
Jason enjoys golf and basketball.

Selection criteria included a combination of grades, extracurricular activities, references and employment.

Either they or one of their parents is an employee of an AWCI member company. To further meet scholarship requirements, these young people are pursuing a post-high school education in construction management, engineering or architecture. All names are removed from the application materials prior to the FWCI Scholarship Committee’s viewing.

We congratulate these outstanding young people upon their accomplishment. Scholarship applications for 2001 will be available at AWCI’s Web site, www.awci.org, in November.

About the Author
Jane Northern is director of membership marketing and programs for the Association of the Wall and Ceiling Industries-International, Falls Church, Va.